

SOCCER, BASEBALL & FOOTBALL – WHAT A YEAR TO BE AN AMERICAN SPORTS FAN

What a year to be a sports fan in America! The United States proved to the world this summer that it could host the grandest stage in soccer, the FIFA World Cup 2026, and delivered in spectacular fashion. The tournament was a celebration not just of soccer, but of what this country does best-welcome the world with energy, passion, and unforgettable moments.

Meanwhile, baseball's summer rhythm rolls on as it always has, with pennant races heating up and the crack of the bat providing the perfect soundtrack to long American evenings.

Football fever is already in the air and all 32 NFL teams are reporting to training camp. With the 2026 season set to kick off September 9th, the defending Super Bowl Champion Seattle Seahawks open at home against the New England Patriots in a rematch of Super Bowl LX.

From soccer to baseball to football... it's been a great year in American sports, and the best may still be ahead.
